JACKSON WHITE

ATTORNEYS AT LAW

ELDER LAW ATTORNEYS

□ ALTCS 101*

A step-by-step explanation of the process by which individuals apply and qualify for the ALTCS program; DRA issues which will have a serious impact on qualifying; What services and programs are available when approved for ALTCS; and how to work with the system to get the services needed. For ALTCS 101 dates, times and locations, please visit our Web site at www.arizonaseniorlaw.com.

□ ALTCS Q & A*

The content in this presentation is similar to the ALTCS 101. It is broken down into question and answer format making it easier to understand and answers many of the commonly asked questions we hear on a regular basis. This is recommended for professionals in the community wanting to learn more about ALTCS.

□ Miller Trusts*

A discussion on what an income only/Miller trust is, when it is needed, how it works, and the maintenance required after the trust is established.

□ Advance Directives, Guardianships, and Conservatorships**

Explanation of Living Wills and Health Care Powers of Attorney, what they can do, and what they cannot do; as well as a discussion on circumstances when a guardianship and/or conservatorship may be needed, the difference between the two, and the duties imposed upon the guardian and conservator. Learn how to be proactive vs. reactive

□ VA Aid and Attendance**

Overview of benefits available through Veterans administration; learn why the veteran or the surviving spouse may be eligible for additional benefits and the process of application.

□ Be in the Know**

Find out why it makes sense to plan ahead in order to maintain control over health care and financial decisions. A basic overview is given regarding types of POA's available and recommended to everyone. A brief explanation of the Medicaid/ALTCS program is also included. This presentation works best when broken into two one hour presentations.

Part I - Power of Attorney/DNR overview

Part II - Medicaid/ALTCS

□ Easily Said, Not Easily Done**

Starting the conversation of death and dying can be difficult. Learn more about wills, living trusts, POA's, surrogacy laws and probate. A discussion of why planning ahead is so important and what it means to have your affairs in order.

Each of these presentations can be modified to fit special requests and needs.
